Carol Service Sunday 20th December 10.30 at the church

It would be great to see as many families as possible at the Ashton Carol Service next Sunday as the school are an important part of the service. It is a relaxed, informal service and a lovely way to end the term. Thank you to all those who have sent back their slips. If you haven't already done so I would appreciate it if you could send in asap so we can plan our contribution. We will be singing a song from our nativity play; the infants are asked to come dressed in their nativity costumes; Juniors will be playing the chime bars and guitar or doing readings. Many thanks. Junior Angels display

The Juniors created some beautiful art work for the "Festival of Angels" at Stoke Bruerne church last weekend. I visited with my boys and nieces, and the church were so grateful for our contributions. Thank you to Miss Smith and the Juniors for sorting this out.

It's a baby

A reminder that our nativity will be held at The Rugby Club on Thursday 17th December at 2pm and 6:30pm. Please can children arrive by 6:10pm for the evening performance.

Celebration Assembly next week

Due to us heading to the pantomime on Friday next week, celebration assembly will be on Thursday morning at 9am.

Have a lovely weekend, I am playing the role of a DJ tonight for a youth club disco! (I have never done this before in my life, so it should be interesting!)

Dress Code for the Christmas Party and Panto - Friday 18th

Because the panto and the party are on the same day we are asking that children can come in casual bottoms BUT MUST WEAR AN ASHTON JUMPER OR FLEECE for the panto and then they can put their Christmas tops on when we get back to school. We need to identify our children as there will be loads of other schools there.

After School care In Large Homely Environment
