Halfway through the year already!

I hope those who could make it enjoyed coming to share their child's work this afternoon. There has been some great progress over the term and we are really proud of what the children have achieved. I have had the pleasure of showing some visitors around at Ashton over the last week. I always enjoy showing people round and talking them through our exciting journey. They all comment on the friendly family feel of the school and what a special place it is.

I would like to wish you all a lovely half term break with your families. I am flying out to Nigeria tonight on the night flight from Heathrow. I am incredibly nervous but excited to meet my husband's family and experience a culture completely different to my own. I do have some concerns around the food, and the heat – 38 degrees at the moment. I very much look forward to seeing you all back in school on Monday 19th February for another action packed term.

Best Wishes

Jude Busari
