Stars of the Week

Well done to Emily in the infants for star of the week. Well done to Harry and Rihanna in the juniors for achieving star of the week. Well done to Maisie for achieving the lunchtime award.

W/C 20/11/17

Class	Attendance %
Infants	96.3 %

Last week's attendance in the juniors was amazing. Well done!!

Please can we remind you that we are a nut free school as we have children with severe nut allergies. This includes peanut butter sandwiches. Thank you.

Please remember to cancel Dolce lunches if your child is going on a trip. The last few trips we have had hardly anyone cancel the lunches which meant there was huge amounts of food being thrown in the bin. At some point in the future Dolce will be asking parents to pay for lunches that are not cancelled in a timely manner to help reduce food waste.

For some reason children are bringing toys and cuddly teddy's into school. Please can we ask you to remind children not to bring toys into school as it's a huge distraction. Any toys found will be put in the office and children can then collect them at the end of the day and parents will be advised. Many thanks.

I am delighted to tell you that Mrs Catherine McGlade will be coming to Ashton on Wednesday 6th December to spend the day with the Infants, getting to know the children and starting the transition process. I welcome you to pop into school either first thing, or after school to say hello and introduce yourself. I know she is keen to meet everyone and is looking forward to joining us.

We are still awaiting the outcome of our monitoring visit from last week and as soon as we receive any news we will send it out to you.

It has been a special week for me as my grandmother turned 100 on Thursday. She had her letter from the Queen delivered and we enjoyed making a fuss of her.

As the Christmas festivities start to get underway, I am very much looking forward to my first Ashton Christmas, starting with the disco tonight – I will be selling raffle tickets so I look forward to seeing you all there. Rehearsals are underway for the Christmas play, if your child has some lines we would really appreciate your help in learning the lines. We will be starting to put things together next week in the afternoons. Children should make sure they have their scripts in school every day now.

We will also be having a Christmas service in church on Wednesday 20th December that we invite you to attend. It will start at 9.15am and last around 30 minutes. There is also the church Christingle service on Sunday 17th December which I hope you are able to come to.

Have a lovely weekend – I am planning to brave the shops – again!! I look forward to seeing you all in school on Monday.
